

I'm writing regarding the possibility of losing air1 because of LPFM stations. This would be detrimental to people who look to air1 for good clean music with a positive outlook. Please reconsider and keep air1 on the air for the people who look to this station for encouragement and a positive thing to share with their children.